New Design Asoka Pillar Notes—1950 Issue.

We enclose for your information and guidance a copy of Press Communique dated the 9th January 1950 giving description of the various denominations of new design Asc Pillar Bank notes. These notes will be issued to the pub from the 26th January 1950.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

The Reserve Bank of India will issue from the 26 January 1950, a new series of Bank notes of all denominatio a India's distinctive design of the Asoka Pillar which has a approved by the Central Government under Section 25 he Reserve Bank of India Act (II of 1934). The existing es will, however, continue to be legal tender.

description of the new notes is given below for the rmation of the public :—

Two Rupees—This is an entirely new design, the size ig $4\frac{1}{2}'' \times 2\frac{1}{2}''$ as at present.

Front.—On the left is a blank panel, generally rectangu- in shape with a plain double-line border, in which appears Asoka Pillar watermark. On the right, and enclosed hin an irregular-shaped oval panel of white lines and floral oration is a representation of the Asoka Pillar capital inst a shaded background. The serial number of the note ears in black beneath this panel. The centre of the note eaded by the words Reserve Bank of India in white set in rved, shaded panel followed by the usual promise to pay lerneath, with the signature of the Governor of the Reserve nk of India. The value in both English and Hindi appears arge white shaded letters in the centre of the note and the re 2 in Arabic and Hindi characters appears in the top-left top-right hand corners of the note, respectively. The der of the note consists of an indented double line with geometrical work inside. The main design of the note printed in red-brown with rainbow tints of blue-green, ple, orange, blue-green and olive-green.

Back.—On the right is a blank watermark panel bordered curved double lines and floral work; On the left is a ular panel containing a representation of a tiger's head inst a shaded background. Below this panel appear the rds Two Rupees in large white shaded letters. The centre eaded by the words Reserve Bank of India in white set in urved shaded panel and immediately below and super- osed on a guilloche, appears the value in Urdu, Hindi, ngali, Telugu, Tamil, Kanarese, Gujerati and Oriya. ntrally placed at the foot of the note is the Reserve Bank ndia Seal with floral supports. The figure 2 in Hindi and bic numerals appears in the top-left and top-right hand ners of the note, respectively. The border of the note sists of an indented double line with fine geometrical work ide. The main design is printed in red-brown with rain- v tints of orange, olive-green and purple.

Rupees Five.—The new design is very similar to that of current note, the chief modifications being as follows :—

Front.—The blank panel on the left carries the Asoka ar watermark while the corresponding panel on the right ries a representation of the Asoka Pillar capital against a ded background. The purple tint of the present note is laced by an orange tint and the whole note appears some- at bolder as the result of the use of slightly heavier colours.

Back.—The brown and blue tint colours are transposed latter now appearing at the top of the note and the ner at the bottom. The value in Oriya script has been ed.

Rupees Ten.—The new design is similar to that of the rent note, the chief modifications being as follows :—

Front.—The blank panel on the left carries the Asoka lar watermark while the corresponding panel on the right ries a representation of the Asoka Pillar capital against a ded background. The wording of the promise to pay in centre of the note has been re-arranged slightly in order allow the signature of the Governor of the Reserve Bank India to appear directly beneath it, the panel at the left- nd bottom corner now being filled with the word Rupees perimposed on the figure 10 against a geometrical back- und. The tint colours in the centre of the note have been dified, the most noticeable change being the replacement the prominent orange tint by blue. The prefix and serial mber are printed in black.

Back.—The only changes are a re-arrangement of the sent tint colours and the addition of the value in Oriya ipt.

Rupees One Hundred.—This is an entirely new design, e size being $6\frac{3}{4}'' \times 4\frac{1}{4}''$, as at present.

Front.—On the left is a blank panel of irregular shape, nsisting of a floral border with a vignette which contains the oka Pillar watermark. On the right is a panel of similar ape and design containing a representation of the Asoka llar capital against a shaded background. At the head of e note and connecting these two panels is a curved panel ntaining the words Reserve Bank of India in bold, shaded, ite letters. Underneath comes the usual promise to pay ainst wavy line tints the words One Hundred Rupees, which e contained in a special panel of geometrical work, also ing in bold, shaded, white letters. Immediately below the watermark panel and the corresponding panel on the right, parallel white lines run right across the note, the space between the lines being occupied by the signature of the Governor of the Reserve Bank of India in the centre with the prefix and serial number of the note printed in black on either side. The border of the note consists of an indented double line with fine geometrical work inside. The whole design is superimposed upon wavy line tint work of oval shape which extends to all the four edges of the note. The main design of the note is printed in blue with rainbow tints of mauve, olive-green, blue, blue-grey, blue-green, orange and green. Previous designs of this denomination have had the circle of issue printed on them but this is omitted from the new design, the necessary identification being done by reference to the prefixes of which separate allotments will be made to each Currency Office.

Back.—On the right is the blank watermark panel with an irregular border of continuous beading. On the left a similar panel contains the Reserve Bank seal superimposed on a guilloche. Above each of these panels is a small head-panel, with floral work on either side, containing the value in figures of floral design. Between these two head panels appear the words Reserve Bank of India in bold white letters on a slight curve. Occupying the centre of the note is a forest scene depicting two elephants, the words One Hundred Rupees appearing immediately underneath in bold, shaded, white letters. The value in the various scripts appears at the bottom of the note as follows :—Bottom left corner: Oriya, Telugu, and Bengali; Centre: Hindi and Urdu; Bottom right corner: Tamil, Kanarese and Gujerati. All these appear in white characters against a background of geometrical work. The whole design is enclosed within a border of indented double lines with geometrical work inside. The main design is printed in blue with rainbow tints of blue-grey, olive-green, brown and blue-green.

Whereas it has become necessary with a view to maintain fuel supplies essential to the life of the community in Bangalore City, to requisition the fuel available in the property described above notice is hereby given to..... ....and all others interested therein that I, A. S. Ramanna, B.A. Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, Bangalore City, in exercise of the powers vested in me as per G. O. No. S. D. 5936—C. 78-46-18, dated 21st January 1947 under Rule 75 (A) Defence of India Rules as applied to Mysore and continued under the supplies, service and miscellaneous provisions (Temporary Powers) Emergency Act, 1946 have decided to acquire the abovementioned fuel in pursuance of sub-rule 2 thereof. I further direct that to avoid all delay, this notice be published in the Gazette under the same sub-rule.

2. You are hereby directed to arrange to cut and transport and deliver all the fuel available therein to the undersigned at the Railway Station weighbridge.....Depot, Bangalore City. You should deliver not less than.....tons before.....and thereafter.....tons per week till the supply is exhausted. You will be paid compensation at prevalent rates.

3. Under sub-rule 2 of the Rule 75 (A) of the above said rules, you are prohibited from disposing of the fuel or any part of it to any other party without the written permission of the undersigned.

4. The property requisitioned vests in the Government free of all encumbrances immediately after the service of notice on you, or after the date of publication of the notice in the official Gazette, whichever is earlier.

5. If, to your knowledge, others are interested in this property, you should notify in writing this office before taking compensation.

6. If you fail to arrange for cutting or transporting the fuel as per paragraph 2 supra, Government agent will be appointed to cut and transport the commodity and out of the compensation otherwise due to you, the expenses of the Government agent will be deducted.

7. If any dispute arises regarding the apportionment of compensation from among parties interested, an Arbitrator will be appointed under sub-rule 4 of rule 75A.

8. You are further informed that under sub-rule 7 of Rule 75-A, if any person contravenes any order under this rule, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.
